

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 3 A.M.

Major-General Crittenden, with his family, reached this city Saturday evening, on the way to Frankfort. The General is in top-hat, health and heroic spirits, looking like, what he is, one of the noblest and most gifted soldiers of the Republic. He is of course somewhat impatient under the inexorable delay of the War Department in granting his investigation to which he was inexorably summoned from the field, and in this impatience every just man and true patriot must share; yet he holds a firm hand on his sword and chasing spirit. Surely the President is bound in duty and in honor to see to it that the War Department does not withhold from this gallant officer the poor justice of a speedy and full investigation. The President owes this much to himself as well as to General Crittenden and to the country. It is a debt not only to public duty but to public decency. Let us hope that it will be faithfully discharged.

NEW LOUISVILLE DIRECTORY.—Messrs. Dunnivant & Williams, the agents for Williams & Co., are now in this city preparing to issue a City Directory for 1864. They will place a large number of canvassers at work to-day, and publish the Directory as soon as the necessary information can be obtained. The compilers promise the greatest diligence and care in the preparation of the work, and, as they have been extensively engaged in the business for many years, their experience will enable them to give a complete work. It will contain a full alphabetical list of our inhabitants and their places of residence and business, together with a comprehensive City Guide, in which will be embraced a Street Directory, City Government, School Department, Fire Department, a Directory to Benevolent Institutions, Churches, Insurance Companies, Banks and all public places in the city, a list of Justices of the Peace and Notaries Public in Jefferson County, and other county officers. Also a complete Business Directory, or Commercial Register, containing the name of every person and firm engaged in business in the city of Louisville, arranged under suitable and appropriate headings. And there will also be appended to the work a complete United States Post-Office Directory, containing the name and location of every post-office in the United States and Territories, arranged alphabetically in States, and corrected up to date. The work will be printed on good paper, put up in a neat and substantial manner, like their Cincinnati Directory, and furnished to subscribers at two dollars and fifty cents per copy, payable on delivery. As the Directory will circulate in the public places, and be consulted daily by every class of citizens and strangers, it will be found a most valuable medium for the circulation of cards, circulars, or other permanent advertisements.

COL. CHARLES S. HANSON.—We are gratified to learn that this officer, who has, as Lieutenant-Colonel, been the acting commander of the 20th Kentucky Infantry for some time past, and Provost Marshal at Louisville, was in Indianapolis last Thursday to procure the necessary supplies for four hundred men. We are advised that volunteering in this district is progressing very rapidly.

The 7th Indiana Cavalry have been ordered to Texas. They will depart on Monday next. Division of PROFITS.—The “participation,” or return premium plan adopted by some of the fire insurance companies of New York and elsewhere must commend itself to the favorable notice of business men, property-owners, and all those who may be seeking insurance.

The system has arrived at a period of great popularity in the Eastern cities, where it is understood, and is rapidly growing in the favorable opinion of the business men in the West. Policy-holders of these companies participate in the net profits of the whole business to the extent of three-fourths, or seventy-five per cent thereof, for which scrip is issued, bearing interest at six per cent per annum. The scrip is redeemable as soon as the fund represented by said scrip shall exceed generally the amount of the capital of the company. In the case of the Continental Insurance Company, of New York, this fund has already reached the required sum, as it is expected the company will pay off the scrip issues of 1857 and 1858 in July of next year.

In the meanwhile, the company will have paid forty-two per cent in the shape of interest on scrip of 1857. The scrip of the Continental Insurance Company is readily purchased at sixty cents on the dollar as soon as declared and from that up to ninety cents on the dollars for the older issues. The Continental Insurance Company, 102 Broadway, New York; Washington Insurance Company, New York, 172 Broadway; North American Fire Insurance Company, New York, No. 6 Wall street (organized in 1823), and the Home Insurance Company, New Haven, Conn., are all doing business on this mutual, or “participation plan.” When it is considered that the rates charged by these companies are no higher than those charged by other fire insurance offices, it will be seen at once that their policies have a great advantage over the others.

The insurance companies that we have are represented in this city by Mr. B. D. Kennedy, who is prepared to issue policies upon almost every description of property, against loss or damage by fire, water, at his office, No. 411 Main street, below Fourth and Fifth.

THE GUERRILLAS IN KENTUCKY.—The Cairo Democrat of Saturday says that no further demonstrations by the rebels, near Paducah, have been made within the last few days. They yet hold Paducah, and, no doubt, are sending away all the plunder they can get.

The Democrat says that Mr. Boyd, conductor of one of the trains that were captured, had his money taken from him, and was wounded on the head with a ball.

LUCIEN ANDERSON.—Member of Congress elected, by Rev. W. E. B. Clegg, Dr. R. M. Anderson and proprietor of the Danville Tribune, by all of Danville.

DIED.—At his home in Brandenburg, Ky., on the 18th of October, Dr. ROBERT BUCKNER, in the 67th year of his age, son of Dr. and Mrs. B. D. Buckner.

On Sunday morning, November 8th, MINNIE BELL, wife of Dr. C. M. JACKSON & H. M. E. STOCKHORN, aged 7 months, died at 11 A.M.

The friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral at 10 o'clock this (Monday) morning.

At his home in Brandenburg, Ky., on the 18th of October, Dr. ROBERT BUCKNER, in the 67th year of his age, son of Dr. and Mrs. B. D. Buckner.

Mr. BOLLINGER made his escape by disguising himself in women's apparel and going into his ice-house and daubing himself over with wet sand-dust.

Mr. T. WYMAN suffered very much from the weight of some timbers that fell on him, and which the inferior rebels refused to remove. They took his watch, but paid no attention to his condition.

It is said that a number of the band were seen in Paducah some days ago, but were thought to be merchants from the country, who had come in to buy goods.

Mr. T. WYMAN, a citizen of this city, is gratifying to note the fact that his son was never in a more orderly condition than at the present time. The vigilance of our police renders this a very profitable liability for these gentle- men. Our authorities have assumed the responsibility of arresting all notorious characters as soon as they arrive, instead of waiting until they commit a crime. For some time past, the long-fingered class have given our city a wide berth.

AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING.—At the Louisville Theatre, Laura Keene's combination troupe appear in the comedy of An Unequal Match and the new piece Nature Versus Art. The same of Miss Keene has been very successful elsewhere. At Wood's Theatre Mr. Joseph Proctor, a fine actor, appears as the Jibbenainay, and Woman's Wit will follow. With these attractions, we shall have a week of delightful amusement.

THE GENTLEMEN WHO WERE DESIGNATED.—Col. M. Mundy to act as a committee of arrangement for the benefit tendered by the lessees of Wood's Theatre to the poor are requested to call at Col. Mundy's office this morning at 10 o'clock to arrange and enter upon their duties. As the benefit will come off on Tuesday of next week, the committee must be prompt to their action.

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF KENTUCKY MILITIA.—Governor Bramlette has appointed D. W. Lindsey Inspector General of the Kentucky Militia, under the State Guard Law. All communications in regard to the organization of the enrolled Militia and State Guard should be addressed to Gen. Lindsey, at Frankfort.

THE OWENSBORO MONITOR.—The ladies will present a flag to the 20th Kentucky at the courthouse on next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Hamilton Pope, Esq., will present the flag in behalf of the donors. The Post band will be in attendance. Ladies particularly invited.

COL. LIEUT. WILLIAM O. BOYLE.—Formerly on the staff of Brig. Gen. J. T. Boyle, has been appointed Major in the 11th Kentucky Cavalry, Col. Riley, and is in command of a battalion at Harrodsburg.

MISS LAURA KEENE.—The company arrived in the city, from Nashville, last evening, and are stopping at the National Hotel.

NOTICES OF THE DAY.

POSTAGE.—Postage currency will be exchanged at this office for larger United States notes.

FASHIONABLE MILLINERY.—At Mrs. M. D. Gilchrist's, 413 Jefferson street, south side, between Fourth and Fifth streets. $2 33m

LOUISVILLE AUDIENCES.—Any one familiar with our Louisville audiences in former times, when all the ladies attended without bonnets and in full dress, cannot fail to note the change now. We have the elegant like the elegant bonnets, the beautiful wrappings, and magnificent furs (all the best of which are from Green & Green's, corner Main and Fourth streets) that one may see in our fashionable audiences.

DR. BURNETT'S COCAINE.—Has received strong certificate of its virtue as a hair preparation from every section of the country. Worthless imitations abound, all tending to increase the popularity of the original article. It is the result of much experiment and study, and is imitative.

GROCERS.—Spice dealers, and druggists, all sell Burnett's standard flavoring extracts.
